

Data subject's rights under the Regulation and Act

A data subject has the following rights:

Right of access to personal data (Article 15 of the Regulation and Article 21 of the Act)

A data subject shall have the right to obtain from EUSTREAM confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him or her are being processed. If EUSTREAM does process such personal data, the data subject has the right of access to the personal data and the following information:

- the purpose of personal data processing;
- the categories of processed personal data;
- the identification (where possible) of the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, in particular recipients in third countries or international organisations;
- the period for which the personal data will be stored (if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period);
- the existence of the right to request from EUSTREAM rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the data subject, or to object to such processing;
- the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, the same being the Office for Personal Data Protection of the SR under the Regulation, or to lodge a petition to initiate personal data protection proceedings under the Act;
- the source of the personal data if not collected from the data subject;
- the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, (including information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject);
- the appropriate safeguards concerning the transfer of personal data if the personal data are transferred to a third country or to an international organisation.

At the request of the data subject, EUSTREAM will provide to him or her a copy of the personal data being processed. EUSTREAM may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs for repeated provision of personal data to the data subject.

If the data subject has made the request by electronic means, and unless otherwise requested by the data subject, the information shall be provided in a commonly used electronic form.

Right to rectification (Article 16 of the Regulation and Article 22 of the Act)

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from EUSTREAM without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning the data subject. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the data subject shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed.

Right to erasure ('Right to be forgotten', Article 17 of the Regulation and Article 23 of the Act)

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from EUSTREAM without undue delay the erasure of personal data concerning him or her if any of the following grounds applies:

- the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- the data subject withdraws the consent (see below) on which the processing is based, unless there is another legal ground for the processing;
- the data subject objects to the processing carried out on the legal ground of public interest or legitimate interest (see below) and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing;

- the personal data have been processed unlawfully;
- the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation under the law of the European Union or the Slovak Republic;
- the personal data have been collected in relation to the offer of information society services referred to in Article 8(1) of the Regulation or Article 15(1) of the Act.

This right shall not apply to the extent the processing of personal data is necessary, for example, for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information, for compliance with a legal obligation or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller, for reasons of public interest in the area of public health, for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Right to restriction of processing (Article 18 of the Regulation and Article 24 of the Act)

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from EUSTREAM restriction of processing if one of the following applies:

- the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the data subject, for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- the data subject has objected to the processing carried out on the legal ground of public interest or legitimate interest (see below), until the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.

If processing has been restricted, EUSTREAM may store or process such personal data only for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, or for the protection of the rights of other persons, or for reasons of important public interest. Any other processing will be subject to the data subject's consent.

If the restriction of processing is to be lifted, EUSTREAM will inform the data subject accordingly in advance.

Right to data portability (Article 20 of the Regulation and Article 26 of the Act)

The data subject exercising his or her right to data portability has the right to receive the personal data (in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format) and, to the extent technically feasible, transmit those data directly from one controller to another.

The right to portability of personal data may be exercised to the extent:

- the processing is performed on the legal ground of consent or contract; and
- the processing is carried out by automated means.

Right to object (Article 21 of the Regulation and Article 27 of the Act)

Where the legal ground for the personal data processing is performing a task carried out in public interest (within the meaning of Article 6(1)(e) of the Regulation or Article 13(1)(e) of the Act) or legitimate interest (within the meaning of Article 6(1)(f) of the Regulation or Article 13(1)(f) of the Act), the data subject shall have the RIGHT TO OBJECT to the processing of personal data relating to him or her, including objecting to profiling.

If such objection is made, EUSTREAM will no longer process the personal data unless it demonstrates

- compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject; or
- grounds for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

You may send your objection to: eustream, a.s., Votrubova 11/A, 821 09 Bratislava, or by e-mail to ochranaou@eustream.sk.

Automated individual decision-making, including profiling (Article 22 of the Regulation and Article 28 of the Act)

The data subject shall have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning him or her or similarly significantly affects him or her.

This right shall not apply if the decision:

- is necessary for entering into, or performance of, a contract between the data subject and a controller;
- is authorised by the law of the European Union or the Slovak republic; or
- is based on the data subject's explicit consent.

Right to withdraw consent (Article 7 of the Regulation and Article 14 of the Act)

If the processing is based on the data subject's consent, the data subject shall have the right to withdraw his or her consent at any time.

The consent may be withdrawn in the same manner as it was given. The data subject shall have also the right to withdraw his or her consent in any of the following ways:

- Sending an e-mail to ochranaou@eustream.sk;
- Calling +421 2 6250 7111;
- Coming in person to the controller's address, i.e. eustream, a.s., Votrubova 11/A, 821 09 Bratislava; or
- Sending a written request in an envelope bearing the "GDPR - consent withdrawal" notice to the address of EUSTREAM.

The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on the consent given before its withdrawal.
